

Festival of Baroque Arts

– 12th year –

Český Krumlov 20 – 22 September 2019

- 20 Sept Castle Theatre, 6 p.m.
Johann Adolf Hasse: Demofonte
Hasse's second version of the famous Dramma per Musica by Pietro Metastasio, first performed in December 1748 in Venice at the Teatro S. Giovanni Grisostomo.
Modern world premiere.
Jana Dvořáková, Kamila Zbořilová, Eva Benett, Monika Jägerová, Pavel Valenta, Veronika Mráčková Fučíková, Ivo Michl;
Hof-Musici Baroque Orchestra, Castle Theatre Machinists;
stage director Zuzana Vrbová, directed from the harpsichord by Ondřej Macek.
- 20 Sept Great Hall of the former Convent of St Clare, 7 p.m.
Passacalli della Vita
Virtues & Vices in Italian sacred music of the 17th century.
Lucie Rozsnyó – soprano, Miloslav Študent – lute, theorbo, Baroque guitar
- 21 Sept Column Hall in the former stables on the 1st castle courtyard, 1 p.m.
Classical string quartets on period instruments
(W. A. Mozart, J. M. Kraus, L. van Beethoven)
Fibonacci Kwartet (Poland)
- 21 Sept Castle Theatre, 5 p.m.
Johann Adolf Hasse: Demofonte
Repeat of performance from 20 Sept
- 21 Sept Main hall of the Regional Museum (former Jesuit seminary), 7 p.m.
From the Chalumeau to the Basset horn
A walk through the music of the 18th century with different types of single-reed woodwind instruments.
Calamus Consort (Austria)
- 21 Sept Summer Riding School in the Castle Gardens, 9 p.m.
Baroque Fireworks
Theatrum Pyrotechnicum (Český Krumlov)
- 22 Sept Corpus Christi monastery church, 11 a.m.
Music of the Piarist composers
Church music composed in Baroque Bohemia by the members of the Piarist Order.
Ensemble Damian, artistic director Tomáš Hanzlík
- 22 Sept Castle Theatre, 5 p.m.
Johann Adolf Hasse: Demofonte
Repeat of performance from 20 Sept

Programme may be subject to change.